MPS MEMORANDUM AND ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

ABOUT THE MEMORANDUM AND ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

The Memorandum and Articles of Association sets out the purpose for which The Medical Protection Society Limited (MPS) exists and the Articles of Association set out the rules by which it is governed. As a Member of MPS, it is important that you are aware of the provisions contained within them.

Amendments were made to the Memorandum and Articles of Association at the MPS Annual General Meeting on 25 October 2017.

About MPS

The Medical Protection Society Limited (MPS) is the world's leading protection organisation for doctors, dentists and healthcare professionals. We protect and support the professional interests of more than 300,000 members around the world. Membership provides access to expert advice and support and can also provide, depending on the type of membership required, the right to request indemnity for any complaints or claims arising from professional practice.

Our in-house experts assist with the wide range of legal and ethical problems that arise from professional practice. This can include clinical negligence claims, complaints, medical and dental council inquiries, legal and ethical dilemmas, disciplinary procedures, inquests and fatal accident inquiries.

Our philosophy is to support safe practice in medicine and dentistry by helping to avert problems in the first place. We do this by promoting risk management through our workshops, E-learning, clinical risk assessments, publications, conferences, lectures and presentations.

MPS is not an insurance company. All the benefits of membership of MPS are discretionary as set out in the Memorandum and Articles of Association.

- (7) Where a Member or a Former Member fails to pay all or any part of their subscription for any period or periods of membership upon the date when such subscription is due then, subject to the Council's absolute discretion to apply such money otherwise:
 - (a) any actual payment or payments received by the Society will be allocated and applied so as to satisfy the subscription payment or payments due (or so much thereof as possible), from the Member or Former Member, on the basis that all payments are allocated from the earliest date in the period or periods of membership for which payment has not been made, or treated as being made by virtue of this Article 6(7), and then forward from that date for the remainder of the period and any subsequent period or periods (or part thereof) until exhausted, and

- (b) the Member or Former Member, shall cease to be entitled to any benefits of membership of the Society for any period or periods of membership for which, by virtue of this Article 6(7), the allocation of payments results in there being no subscription allocated and applied.
- (8) Where a Member or a Former Member fails to pay all or any part of their subscription for any period of membership, whether by reason of the application of Article 6(7) or for any other reason, the Council may, at its absolute discretion, allow or refuse additional time to make payment. If the Council decides to allow time for payment then it may do so subject to such conditions as it shall, at its absolute discretion, decide including but not limited to a requirement to pay interest.
- (9) When applying for membership or when renewing or varying the terms of membership at any time after having become a Member, the prospective member or Member (as the case may be) shall ensure that there is disclosed to the Society all such information about them or their professional practice as might reasonably be required by the Society in order to provide professional indemnity to such person and/or which is in any way relevant to understanding and evaluating the risk of indemnifying such person and/or for setting a membership subscription for such person including but not limited to:
 - (a) the nature and extent of any past, present or potential future civil or criminal proceedings against them or their professional practice;
 - (b) their professional standing and dealings with any and all relevant professional regulatory bodies or similar such persons or bodies; and

 - (a) provided inaccurate or incomplete information to the Society; or
 - (b) failed to provide accurate or complete information when requested by the Society; or
 - (c) failed to comply with their obligations to the Society in accordance with Article 7; and the Council considers such inaccuracy, or failure to provide information or to comply with the obligations to be in any way material to the acceptance of such person as a Member, the continuation of such person's membership or the terms upon which such person has been accepted or has continued in membership (including but without limitation the subscription demanded from such person) the Council may, in its absolute discretion, either:

- (i) declare that person's membership to be void and of no effect either from the outset or for such period or periods or date or dates as Council may decide and that person shall not be regarded as being a member of the Society nor be entitled to any benefits of membership for the void period or periods or date or dates. In such case, where the Council in its absolute discretion so decides, the Society shall refund, the subscriptions received from such person in respect of the void period or periods or date or dates (less any amount paid or which may be payable to third parties including, but not limited to, legal costs and damages incurred in assisting that person); or
- (ii) calculate the amount that it determines should have been paid by the Member or Former Member had accurate and complete information been provided to the Society at the relevant time and the Member or Former Member had complied with their obligations, in which case the provisions of Article 6(7) shall apply and the period or periods for which such person will be entitled to the benefits of membership calculated accordingly.

7. Every Member shall:

- (a) supply his current residential, professional or business address to the Society, and the address so notified shall be entered in the Register of Members as the registered address of such Member.
- (b) provide the Society with full details of the size, nature and scope of their professional practice and as soon as reasonably practicable notify the Society of any changes.
- (c) on request, supply such other information as the Council may from time to time require.

General meetings

8. All general meetings other than annual general meetings shall be called special general meetings.
9. (1) The Council shall convene annual general meetings in accordance with the Companies Acts and may call special general meetings whenever it thinks fit.

(2) Special general meetings shall be convened by the Council on the requisition in writing of, and signed by, not less than two hundred and fifty Voting Members or on the requisition of Members in accordance with the Act, and shall be held on a date not later than eight weeks after the receipt of such requisition.

Notice of General meetings

10. An annual general meeting and a special general meeting called for the passing of a special resolution or a resolution appointing a person to the Council or to be the President shall be called by at least twenty-one clear days' notice. All other special general meetings shall be called by at least fourteen clear days' notice.
11. The notice shall specify:
 - (a) whether the meeting is an annual general meeting or a special general meeting;
 - (b) the day, time and place of the meeting;
 - (c) the general nature of the business to be transacted; and
 - (d) with reasonable prominence, that a Member entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint a proxy to attend and, on a poll, vote instead of him, and that the proxy must also be a Voting Member.

Subject to the provisions of these Articles, the notice shall be given to all Voting Members, all Council Members and the Auditors.

12. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting (or, where forms of proxy are sent out with notices, to send a form of proxy) to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting or a form of proxy by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

Proceedings at General meetings

13. (1) Council Members, whether Members or not, shall be entitled to notice of and to attend and speak at any general meeting but not, unless a Voting Member, to vote thereat.
 - (2) No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless a quorum is present. Ten Voting Members present in person or by representative (in the case of a Corporate Member) or by proxy shall be a quorum.
 - (3) If such quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, or if during a meeting such quorum ceases to be present, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to such time and place as the Council may decide.
 - (4) The chairman of the Council shall preside as chairman of every meeting, but if the chairman of the Council is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting, or if he is not willing to act, those Council Members present who are also Members shall elect one of their number to be chairman of the meeting, and if there is only one such Council Member present and willing to act he shall be chairman.
 - (5) If no such Council Member is willing to act as chairman of the meeting, or if no such Council Member is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Members present and entitled to vote shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.
 - (6) The chairman of the meeting may (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn a meeting from time to time and from place to place but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place. When a meeting is adjourned for fourteen days or more, at least seven clear days' notice shall be given (in any manner in which notice of a meeting may lawfully be given from time to time). Otherwise, it shall not be necessary to give any such notice.
14. (1) A resolution put to the vote of a meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless, before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands, a poll is duly demanded. Subject to the provisions of the Act, a poll may be demanded:
 - (a) by the chairman of the meeting; or
 - (b) by at least five Voting Members present in person or by representative (in the case of a Corporate Member) or by proxy.

- (2) Unless a poll is duly demanded, a declaration by the chairman of the meeting that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority lost or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact.
- (3) The demand for a poll may, before the poll is taken and with the consent of the chairman, be withdrawn, and a demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.
- (4) A poll shall be taken in such manner as the chairman of the meeting directs and he may appoint scrutineers (who need not be Members) and fix a time and place for declaring the result of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- (5) In the case of an equality of votes (whether on a show of hands or on a poll), the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any other vote he may have.
- (6) A poll demanded on the election of the chairman of the meeting or the adjournment of the meeting shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken either forthwith or at such time and place as the chairman directs, but in any case not more than thirty days after the meeting at which the poll is demanded. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of the meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll is demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result of the show of hands, and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.
- (7) No notice need be given of a poll not taken forthwith if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case, at least seven clear days' notice shall be given (in any manner in which notice of a meeting may lawfully be given) specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.

Votes of Members

15. On a show of hands, every Voting Member who (being a natural person) is present in person or (being a Corporate Member) is present by a duly authorised representative shall have one vote, and on a poll every Voting Member so present or present by proxy shall have one vote.
16. A Member in respect of whom an order has been made by any court or official having jurisdiction (whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere) in matters concerning mental disorder may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his guardian, curator bonis or other person authorised in that behalf and appointed by that court (whether a Member or not), and any such guardian, curator bonis or other person may, on a poll, vote by proxy. Evidence to the satisfaction of the Council of the authority of the person claiming to exercise the right to vote shall be deposited or delivered at the Registered Office of the Society (or at such other place as is specified in accordance with these Articles for the deposit or delivery of appointments of proxy) not less than forty-eight hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the right to vote is to be exercised, and in default the right to vote shall not be exercisable.
17. No objection shall be raised as to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting shall be valid. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting whose decision shall be final and conclusive.
18. (1) The appointment of a proxy shall be executed by or on behalf of the appointor and shall be in the following form (or in a form as near thereto as circumstances allow, or in any other form which is usual or which the Council may approve):

- (2) Where it is desired to afford Members an opportunity of instructing the proxy how he shall act, the appointment of a proxy shall be in the following form (or in a form as near thereto as circumstances allow, or in any other form which is usual or which the Council may approve):

'The Medical Protection Society Limited

Unless otherwise instructed, the proxy may vote as he thinks fit or abstain from voting.

If the Council in its absolute discretion so decides, an appointment of proxy may be sent by electronic communication and shall be treated as delivered at the time of receipt at such address as may be specified (i) in the notice convening the meeting; (ii) in any appointment of proxy sent out by the Society in relation to the meeting or adjourned meeting; (iii) in any invitation contained in an electronic communication to appoint a proxy issued by the Society in relation to the meeting; (iv) in any notice of any adjourned meeting or of any poll; or (v) in any of the above cases, in any accompanying documents.

- (3) The appointment of a proxy and any authority under which it is executed, or a copy of such authority certified notarially or in some other way approved by the Council, must:
- (a) in the case of an appointment in writing, be deposited or delivered at the Registered Office of the Society (or at such other place within the United Kingdom as is specified in the notice convening the meeting or adjourned meeting or in any appointment of proxy sent out by the Society in relation to the meeting or adjourned meeting) not less than forty-eight hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote; or
 - (b) in the case of an appointment contained in an electronic communication, where an address has been specified for the purpose of receiving electronic communications (i) in the notice convening the meeting; (ii) in any appointment of proxy sent out by the Society in relation to the meeting or adjourned meeting; (iii) in any invitation contained in an electronic communication to appoint a proxy issued by the Society in relation to the meeting; (iv) in any notice of any adjourned meeting or of any poll; or (v) in any of the above cases, in any accompanying documents, be received at such address not less than forty-eight hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the appointment proposes to vote; or

- (c) in the case of a poll taken more than forty-eight hours after it is demanded, (in the case of an appointment in writing) be deposited or delivered or (in the case of an appointment contained in an electronic communication) be received as aforesaid after the poll has been demanded and not less than twenty-four hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll; or
- (d) where the poll is not taken forthwith but is taken not more than forty-eight hours after it was demanded, (in the case of an appointment in writing) be deposited or delivered or (in the case of an appointment contained in an electronic communication) be received as aforesaid not less than twelve hours before the meeting at which the poll was demanded, and an instrument of proxy which is not (in the case of an appointment in writing) deposited or delivered or (in the case of an electronic communication) received in a manner so permitted shall, if the Council in its absolute discretion so decides, be invalid.

- (4) A proxy appointed under these Articles must be a Voting Member.
- (5) When two or more valid but differing appointments of proxy are executed by the same Member for use at the same meeting, the one which is last executed shall be treated as replacing and revoking the others as regards that Member, but if the Society is unable to determine which was last executed, none of them shall be treated as valid in respect of that Member. The appointment of a proxy shall not preclude a Member from attending and voting in person at the meeting or any adjourned meeting or on the poll concerned.

The Council

19. Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts, memorandum of association of the Society, these Articles and any directions effected by special resolution, the business of the Society shall be managed by the Council which may exercise all the powers of the Society. No alteration of the memorandum of association or of these Articles, and no such directions given by special resolution, shall invalidate any prior act of the Council which would have been valid had that alteration not been made or that direction not been given. The general powers given by this Article shall not be limited by any special power given to the Council by these Articles, and a meeting of the Council at which a quorum is present may exercise all powers exercisable by the Council.

20. Subject as hereinafter provided, the Council shall consist of not less than five and not more than fourteen members plus the Chief Executive and the DPL Chairman (each of whom shall by virtue of their office be a member of the Council), in these Articles called 'the Council Members' who shall be deemed, for all purposes of the Companies Acts, to be directors of the Society. A majority of the Council Members shall be Medical or Dental Members.
21. (1) The Council may delegate (with power to sub-delegate) any of its powers regarding any question arising in relation to Members or prospective Members who are practising, studying, resident or incorporated outside the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland (including, but without prejudice to the foregoing, its powers under Article 40), to any body having or professing to have objects similar to those of the Society whom the Council may approve for such purpose, whether situated in the United Kingdom or overseas. Any such delegation may be made subject to such conditions as the Council shall think fit and either together with, or to the exclusion of, its own powers, and may be revoked or altered as the Council shall think fit.
- (2) Nothing contained in this Article shall permit the delegation to any body mentioned in Article 21(1) of the power of the Council to approve applicable legislation under Article 2(2)(a) or to impose further conditions for the admission of bodies to membership as provided in Article 2(2).
- (3) The Council may delegate (with power to sub-delegate) such of its powers as it considers fit to the Chief Executive, any other Council Member employed by the Society, the Secretary or such other person or persons as it thinks fit. Any such delegation may be made subject to such conditions as the Council shall think fit and either together with, or to the exclusion of, its own powers, and may be revoked or altered as the Council shall think fit.
22. The Council may appoint committees, sub-committees or ad hoc committees consisting of two or more such persons (whether Members or not) as the Council shall think fit, and may seek recommendations and advice therefrom. Without prejudice to Article 21, the Council may delegate to any such committee, sub-committee or ad hoc committee which has a majority in number of Council Members any of its powers (including, but without prejudice to the foregoing, its powers under Articles 2(2) or 40).

23. Any committee, sub-committee or ad hoc committee appointed by the Council under Article 22 shall conform to any regulations imposed upon it by the Council. The meetings and proceedings of any such committee, sub-committee or ad hoc committee shall be governed by the provisions of these Articles for regulating the meetings and proceedings of the Council (so far as applicable) and so far as the same shall not be superseded by any regulations made by the Council.
24. All acts done bona fide by any meeting of the Council or of any committee of the Council, or by any person acting as a Council Member, shall, notwithstanding it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment or continuance in office of any such Council Members or committee members or person acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed or had duly continued in office and was qualified to be a Council Member or a member of any such committee.

Chief Executive

25. The Council may from time to time appoint as Chief Executive such person (whether a Member or not) as the Council shall think fit to perform such duties for such period and upon such terms as the Council shall from time to time decide. The Council may at any time terminate the appointment of any person as Chief Executive (provided that the exercise of the Council's powers under this Article shall be without prejudice to any rights or claims he may have against the Society by reason of such termination), and may fill any vacancy arising in the office of Chief Executive, and may in either case appoint some other person in his place.

Appointment and Retirement of Council Members

26. (1) At each annual general meeting of the Society, one-third (or, if the total number of Council Members is not a multiple of three, the nearest number to one-third) of the Council Members (being those who have been continuously longest in office since their last appointment or re-appointment) shall retire notwithstanding that such retirement may result in a majority of Council Members no longer being Medical or Dental Members. As between Council Members who were last appointed or re-appointed on the same day, those to retire shall in default of agreement be chosen by lot. Neither the Chief Executive nor the DPL Chairman shall be subject to retirement by rotation and shall be left out of account when calculating the one-third of Council Members who are to retire by rotation.

- (2) If at the meeting at which a Council Member retires by rotation the Society does not fill the vacancy, the retiring Council Member shall, if willing to act, be deemed to have been re-appointed unless at the meeting it is resolved not to fill the vacancy, or unless a resolution for the re-appointment of the Council Member is put to the meeting and lost. If the Council Member is not re-appointed, he shall retain office until the meeting appoints someone in his place, or, if it does not do so, until the end of the meeting.
- (3) No person other than a Council Member retiring by rotation shall be appointed or re-appointed a Council Member at such general meeting unless:
 - (a) he is recommended by the Council; or
 - (b) not less than thirty-five clear days before the date appointed for the meeting, a notice signed by not less than one per cent. of Voting Members qualified to vote at the Meeting has been given to the Society of the intention to propose that person for appointment or re-appointment, stating particulars which would, if he were so appointed or re-appointed, be required to be included in the Society's Register of Directors, together with a notice signed by that person of his willingness to be appointed or re-appointed.
- (4) No person who is not a Medical or Dental Member shall be appointed, re-appointed or deemed re-appointed a Council Member at such meeting unless, following such appointment, re-appointment or deemed re-appointment, a majority of the Council Members are Medical or Dental Members.
- (5) Not less than twenty-one clear days before the date appointed for holding such general meeting, notice shall be given to all who are entitled to receive notice of the meeting of any person (other than a Council Member retiring by rotation at the meeting) who is recommended by the Council for appointment or re-appointment as a Council Member at the meeting, or in respect of whom notice has been duly given to the Society in accordance with the provisions of Article 26(3) of the intention to propose him at the meeting for appointment or re-appointment as a Council Member. The notice shall give particulars of that person which would, if he were so appointed or re-appointed, be required to be included in the Society's Register of Directors.
- (6) The Council may appoint a person who is willing to act to be a Council Member, either to fill a vacancy or as an additional Council Member, provided that no person who is not a Medical or Dental Member shall be so appointed unless, following such appointment, a majority of the Council Members are Medical or Dental Members, and that the appointment does not cause the number of Council Members to exceed any number fixed by these Articles as the maximum number of Council Members. A Council Member so appointed shall hold office only until the next following annual general meeting and shall not be taken into account in determining the Council Members who are to retire by rotation at the meeting. If not re-appointed at such annual general meeting, he shall vacate office at the conclusion thereof.

Disqualification and Removal of Council Members

27. No person who has been a Council Member continuously during the preceding period of nine years and who is not employed by the Society shall be eligible for re-election to the Council.
28. A Council Member shall vacate office:
- (a) if he ceases to be eligible to be a Council Member by virtue of any provision of the Companies Acts or he becomes prohibited by law from being a director of a company; or
 - (b) if he becomes bankrupt or the subject of an interim receiving order, makes any arrangement or composition with his creditors generally, or applies to the court for an interim order under Section 253 of the Insolvency Act 1986 (as modified, supplemented and/or re-enacted from time to time) in connection with a voluntary arrangement under that act; or
 - (c) if he is, or may be, suffering from mental disorder and either:
 - (i) he is admitted to hospital in pursuance of an application for admission for treatment under the Mental Health Act 1983 or the Mental Health (Scotland) Act 1984 (both such acts as modified, supplemented and/or re-enacted from time to time); or
 - (ii) an order is made by a Court having jurisdiction (whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere) in matters concerning mental disorder for his detention or for the appointment of a guardian, curator bonis or other person to exercise powers with respect to his property or affairs; or
 - (d) if he resigns his office by notice to the Secretary; or
 - (e) if, for six or more consecutive months, he has been absent without permission of the Council from meetings of the Council held during that period and the Council resolves that his office be vacated; or
 - (f) upon the written resolution of every other Council Member; or
 - (g) if, in the case of an executive Council Member, he ceases to be employed by the Society.

Remuneration, Expenses and Interests of the Council

29. (1) The President and the Council Members shall be entitled to such remuneration as the Council may think fit and, unless the Council otherwise decides, such remuneration shall be deemed to accrue from day to day.
- (2) The President and the Council Members shall be paid such sums in respect of lost professional earnings as the Council may think fit, together with all expenses properly incurred by them in connection with their attendance at meetings of the Council, committees of the Council, general meetings or otherwise in connection with the discharge of their duties.
- (3) No officer or employee of the Society or Council Member shall be disqualified by reason of his office from (i) being appointed or requested by the Council or otherwise to act as an arbitrator or umpire, or to give his professional services or perform any special services or to make special exertions of any nature whatsoever for any of the purposes of the Society; or (ii) accepting any remuneration or reward by way of fees or otherwise in respect of any arbitration or award or the provision of such services, providing (in each case) that he has the prior written consent of the Council to do so.

Proceedings of the Council

30. (1) Subject to these Articles, the Council may regulate its proceedings as it thinks fit.
- (2) Any four Council Members may, and the Secretary at the request of the President or the chairman of the Council shall, call a meeting of the Council. Notice of a meeting of the Council shall be deemed to be properly given to a Council Member if it is given to him personally or by word of mouth or sent in writing to his last known address or given by electronic communication to him at any address given by him to the Council for the purpose. It shall not be necessary to give notice of a meeting to a Council Member who is absent from the United Kingdom or the Republic of Ireland. Questions arising at a meeting of the Council shall be decided by a majority of votes. In the case of an equality of votes, the chairman shall have a second or casting vote.
- (3) The quorum for the transaction of the business of the Council may be fixed by the Council and unless so fixed at any other number shall be five.
- (4) The Council or a sole Council Member may act notwithstanding any vacancies in the number of the Council, but if the number of Council Members is less than the number fixed as the quorum, the Council may act only for the purpose of filling vacancies or of calling a general meeting.

- (5) Any Council Member may validly participate in a meeting of the Council or a committee of the Council through the medium of video or telephone conference or similar form of communication equipment, provided that all persons participating in the meeting are able to hear and speak to each other throughout such meeting. A person so participating shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting and, accordingly, shall be counted in the quorum and be entitled to vote. Subject to the Companies Acts, all business transacted in such a manner by the Council or a committee of the Council shall, for the purposes of these Articles, be deemed to be validly and effectively transacted at a meeting of the Council or a committee of the Council notwithstanding that no two Council Members are physically present at the same place. Such a meeting shall be deemed to take place where the largest group of those participating is assembled or, if there is no such group, where the chairman of the meeting then is.
- (6) The Council shall appoint one of its number who is a Medical or Dental Member to be the chairman of the Council and may at any time remove him from that office. The chairman shall preside at every meeting of the Council at which he is present. If there is no chairman, or the chairman for the time being is unwilling to preside or is not present within five minutes after the time appointed for the holding of a meeting, the Council Members present may appoint one of their number who is a Medical or Dental to preside at the meeting.
- (7) A resolution in writing signed or, if the Council in its absolute discretion decides, executed by means of electronic communication, in each case, in such manner as the Council may from time to time prescribe, by all the Council Members who are entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Council or of a committee of the Council shall be as valid and effective as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Council or (as the case may be) a committee thereof duly convened and held. Such resolution may consist of several documents in the like form which may be in writing each signed or, if the Council in its absolute discretion so decides, executed by means of electronic communication, by one or more persons, in each case, in such manner as the Council may from time to time prescribe.

President

31. A Medical or Dental Member shall be elected by the Society at a general meeting to be President for a term of four years. The President shall be entitled to receive notice of and to attend and speak at meetings of the Council but shall not, by virtue of his appointment, become a Council Member. The President shall fulfil any such other duties as the Council may request.

Appointment of President

32. No person shall be appointed or re-appointed President at any general meeting unless:

- (a) he is recommended by the Council; or
- (b) he is a Council Member and not less than thirty-five clear days before the date appointed for the meeting, a notice signed by not less than one per cent. of Voting Members has been given to the Society of the intention to propose that person for appointment or re-appointment, stating particulars which would, if he were so appointed or re-appointed, be required to be included in the Society's Register of Directors, together with a notice executed by that person of his willingness to be appointed or re-appointed.

33. Not less than twenty-one clear days before the date appointed for holding a general meeting, notice shall be given to all who are entitled to receive notice of the meeting of any person who is recommended by the Council for appointment or re-appointment as President at the meeting, or in respect of whom notice has been duly given to the Society in accordance with the provisions of Article 32 of the intention to propose him at the Meeting for appointment or re-appointment as President. The notice shall give particulars of that person which would, if he were so appointed or re-appointed, be required to be included in the Society's Register of Directors.

Disqualification and Removal of President

34. A person who has held the office of President for two terms each of four years shall not be eligible for re-election to that office.

35. The President shall vacate office:

- (a) if he ceases to be eligible to be a Council Member by virtue of any provision of the Companies Acts or he becomes prohibited by law from being a director of a company; or
- (b) if he becomes bankrupt or the subject of an interim receiving order, makes any arrangement or composition with his creditors generally, or applies to the court for an interim order under Section 253 of the Insolvency Act 1986 (as modified, supplemented and/or re-enacted from time to time) in connection with a voluntary arrangement under that act; or
- (c) if he is, or may be, suffering from mental disorder and either:

- (i) he is admitted to hospital in pursuance of an application for admission for treatment under the Mental Health Act 1983 or the Mental Health (Scotland) Act 1984 (both such acts as modified, supplemented and/or re-enacted from time to time); or
 - (ii) an order is made by a Court having jurisdiction (whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere) in matters concerning mental disorder for his detention or for the appointment of a guardian, curator bonis or other person to exercise powers with respect to his property or affairs; or
- (d) if he resigns his office by notice to the Secretary; or
- (e) if, for six or more consecutive months, he has been absent without permission of the Council from meetings of the Council held during that period and the Council resolves that his office be vacated; or
- (f) upon the written resolution of every Council Member; or
- (g) by ordinary resolution of the Society in general meeting, subject to the same provisions of the Act as if he were a Council Member.

Expenses and Interests of President

36. The President may be paid all expenses properly incurred in connection with his attendance at meetings of the Council and committees thereof, or otherwise in connection with the discharge of his duties.
37. The President shall not be disqualified by reason of his office from (i) being appointed or requested by the Council or otherwise to act as an arbitrator or umpire, or to give his professional services or to perform any special services or to make special exertions of any nature whatsoever for any of the purposes of the Society; or (ii) from accepting any remuneration or reward by way of fees or otherwise in respect of any arbitration or award or the provision of such services, providing (in each case) that he has the prior written consent of the Council to do so.

Vice-Presidents

38. The Council may from time to time elect such person or persons (whether Members or not) as the Council thinks fit to be a Vice-President of the Society for such period as the Council thinks fit. A Vice-President who is not a Voting Member shall not be entitled to receive notice of, or to attend or vote at, general meetings of the Society.

Secretary

39. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Secretary shall be appointed by the Council for such term at such remuneration to fulfil such duties and upon such conditions as it may think fit, and any Secretary so appointed may be removed by it.

Discretionary Indemnity

40. (1) An indemnity pursuant to clause 3(E) of the memorandum of association of the Society may be granted by the Society to any qualifying applicant in respect of a qualifying claim and all losses (whether incidental, consequential or otherwise), damages, costs, charges and expenses connected with a qualifying claim. The grant of an indemnity shall be entirely in the discretion of the Council, who shall have the power to impose such terms and conditions on the grant of any indemnity as it thinks fit, and may in its absolute discretion limit or restrict such indemnity or decline altogether to grant the same.

(2) A qualifying applicant is a:

- (a) Member (or their personal representative acting in that capacity) in respect of any qualifying claim relating to a period of membership.
- (b) Suspended Member (or their personal representative acting in that capacity) in respect of any qualifying claim relating to a period of membership prior to the suspension of their membership.
- (c) Former Member (or their personal representative acting in that capacity) in respect of any qualifying claim relating to a period of membership prior to the termination of their membership provided that a Former Member (or their personal representatives acting in that capacity) whose membership was terminated by the Society for any reason shall not be a qualifying applicant in respect of any qualifying claim relating to a period of membership for which they failed to pay their subscription prior to the termination of the membership.

(3) A qualifying claim is, subject to any restrictions which may be stipulated or imposed as a condition of membership in any particular case or by reference to any particular class of membership, any action, proceeding, claim or demand by or against the qualifying applicant arising from their professional practice affecting directly or indirectly the professional character, professional interests or professional affairs of any person who either:

- (a) is or was a Member; or

- (b) is or was a member, officer, servant or agent of a body which is or was a Member or made in respect of the conduct in a professional capacity of a deceased such person.
- (4) The Council shall have power to decide the manner in which such indemnities are to be granted, and may from time to time prescribe classes of qualifying claims in respect of which any specified person approved for the purpose being either:
- (a) the Secretary or an employee of the Society; or
 - (b) the Secretary or an employee of a body to whom the powers of the Council, in respect of such claims, shall have been delegated under Article 21(1), may on behalf of the Council grant indemnities within the limits of fixed amounts prescribed by the Council, but nothing contained in this Article shall inhibit the power of the Council to impose terms and conditions on the grant of any particular indemnity or to restrict such indemnity or to withhold altogether the grant of the same.

- (5) The Society may, at any time, terminate or vary any indemnity by notice in writing without assigning any reason provided that such notice shall not affect the payment of monies which have become immediately payable before the service of such notice.
- (6) A qualifying applicant shall, in relation to any qualifying claim in respect of which an indemnity has been requested and/or granted comply absolutely with the directions of the Society, and shall not (without the consent of the Society) take any steps in relation to such claim and shall (at the Society's request) co-operate fully with the Society, its representatives and any appointed advisers in the handling of such claim, in particular, but without limitation, by pursuing and fully assisting the Society in the pursuit of any rights of recovery available from third parties.

Minutes

41. The Council shall cause minutes to be made in books kept for the purpose of all appointments made by the Council and the President and of all proceedings at meetings of the Society and of the Council and of committees of the Council, including the names of those present at each such meeting.

Seal

42. The seal shall only be used by the authority of the Council or of a committee of the Council authorised by the Council. The Council may decide who shall sign any instrument to which the seal is affixed and, unless otherwise so decided, it shall be signed by the chairman of the Council or a Council Member and by the Secretary or a second Council Member.

Accounts

43. (1) The Council shall cause proper books of accounts to be kept in accordance with the Act. The books of accounts shall be kept at the Registered Office of the Society or at such other place or places as the Council thinks fit, and shall always be open to the inspection of the Council.
- (2) The Council shall from time to time decide whether and to what extent and at what time and places and under what conditions and regulations the accounts and books of the Society or any of them shall be open to the inspection of any Member who is not a Council Member, and any such Member shall not have any right of inspecting any account or book or document of the Society except as conferred by the provisions of the Companies Acts or authorised by the Council or by the Society in general meeting.
- (3) The Council may, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Acts and if the Council in its absolute discretion so decides, send accounts and reports to Members by means of electronic communication.

Notices

44. (1) Any notice or other document to be given to or by any person pursuant to these Articles shall be in writing or (subject always to the provisions of the Companies Acts and if the Council in its absolute discretion so decides) given by means of electronic communication to an address for the time being notified for that purpose to the person giving the notice, save that a notice convening a meeting of the Council need not be in writing or sent by electronic communication. Any notice or other document provided to the Society shall be in such form as the Council may from time to time and in its absolute discretion decide, and any notification given to the Society in any other form may, in the Council's absolute discretion, be held to be invalid.
- (2) The Society may give any notice or other document to a Member:
- (a) personally;

- (b) by sending it by post in a pre-paid envelope addressed to such Member at his registered address;
 - (c) by leaving it at such registered address;
 - (d) by means of electronic communication to an address for the time being notified to the Society by such Member (including, for the avoidance of doubt, publication on a web site or sites in accordance with the Companies Acts); or
 - (e) by any other means authorised in writing or by electronic communication by such Member and approved by the Society.
- (3) Any Member whose registered address is not within the United Kingdom and who gives to the Society either a postal address within the United Kingdom at which notices or other documents may be given to him, or an address for the purposes of receipt of electronic communications, shall be entitled to have notices or other documents given to him at such address. Otherwise, no Member, other than a Member whose registered address is within the United Kingdom, shall be entitled to receive any notice or other document from the Society. In the case of notices or other documents sent by means of electronic communication, the Society may make such arrangements for the security of any such communication as it thinks fit.
- (4) Proof that an envelope containing a notice or other document was properly addressed, pre-paid and posted shall be conclusive evidence that such notice or other document was given, and such notice or other documents shall be deemed to be given at the expiration of forty-eight hours after the envelope containing it was posted. Proof that a notice or other document contained in an electronic communication was sent in accordance with guidance issued by the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators shall be conclusive evidence that such notice or other document was given, and such notice or other documents shall be deemed to have been given at the expiration of forty-eight hours from the time at which the notice or other document was sent or, where such electronic communication is by way of publication on a website or sites, at the expiration of forty-eight hours from the time of such publication. Any notice or other document given by the Society by any other means (authorised in writing or by electronic communication by the Member concerned and approved by the Society) shall be deemed to have been given when the Council has carried out the action it has been authorised to take for that purpose. Notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary, the Council may determine not to use electronic communication for the giving of any notice or other document where, in the opinion of the Council in its absolute discretion, to do so would infringe the laws of another country.

- (5) Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts:
- (a) if, on three consecutive occasions, a notice or other document has been sent by post or by electronic communication to a Member but has been returned undelivered, that Member shall not be entitled to receive any subsequent notice or other communication until he has supplied the Society in writing with a new postal address or (if the Council so agrees) an address for the purpose of receiving electronic communications.
 - (b) for the purposes of this Article, a notice sent by post shall be treated as returned undelivered if the notice is sent back to the Society and a notice sent by electronic communication shall be treated as returned undelivered if the Society receives notification that the notice was not delivered to the address to which it was sent.
- (6) Unless the Council shall in its absolute discretion decide otherwise, an appointment of proxy, notice or any other document which is sent by the Member to the Society by means of electronic communication (in each case as authorised by the Council and permitted by law) shall only be valid if it has been verified in such form as the Council shall from time to time prescribe.

Indemnity and Insurance

45. (1) Subject to the provisions of, and so far as may be permitted by, the Act, every Council Member and the Chief Executive and, so far as may be permitted by law, every President, Secretary, Pension Trustee, employee or officer of the Society and every member of any committee (howsoever described) appointed by the Council and every director (howsoever described) of any subsidiary of the Society:
- (a) entitled to be indemnified out of the assets of the Society against all losses or liabilities which he may sustain or incur in the execution and discharge of his duties or otherwise in relation thereto; and
 - (b) provided with funds to meet expenditure incurred or to be incurred by him in defending any civil or criminal proceedings brought or threatened against him in connection with any alleged negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust by him in relation to the Society or any application made by him under Section 727 of the Act in relation to the affairs of the Society.
